ENGLISH SYNOPSIS

Jess meets Casey, a very openly gay woman and quickly the girls form a strong romantic bond which forces Jess to come to terms with her true sexuality. Jess is captivated by Casey's lifestyle; meeting Casey's friends and accepting family sends Jess' life spinning out of control. She does not know what to do as she falls deeper in love with Casey and risks losing her loyal and kind-hearted husband. Casey's life is turned upside down as well; having been a very promiscuous woman and never feeling that true love was really her thing, until now! Ultimately Jess is forced to choose between Casey and Trevor. Risking stability, her family and all that she knows for the great unknown and her new found love. "To Each Her Own" goes deep into the feelings and emotions that one goes through while undergoing the coming out process, in hopes of helping people understand how truly hard the struggle can be with both internalized and external homophobia.

FRENCH SYNOPSIS

Jessica Sutherland a grandi dans une petite ville où l'homosexualité n'était pas acceptée par la société. Dès un jeune âge, Jessica réalise qu'elle a des sentiments envers d'autres femmes et tient à ne pas en dire un mot à personne. Elle s'est mariée avec un ami du secondaire, Trevor, qui a bon cœur et qui est dévoué à elle. Après quelques ans de mariage, Jessica et Trevor commencent à penser à débiter leur famille. Par contre, c'est à ce stade de sa vie que Jessica rencontre Casey, une femme qui est ouvertement lesbienne. Dans peu de temps les femmes forment un lien romantique entre-elles, qui force Jessica à finalement accepter sa vraie sexualité, qu'elle est amoureuse d'une femme. Elle est tellement captivée par le style de vie de Casey et tellement émue de voir l'appui que lui donne sa famille, qu'elle perd contrôle de sa propre vie. Ceci cause des ennuis à Casey aussi. Étant une femme aux mœurs immorales, Casey ne pensait jamais tomber amoureuse car l'amour n'est pas pour elle. Jessica doit maintenant choisir entre Casey et Trevor, tenant compte des facteurs tels que la stabilité et sa famille. Elle doit décider si elle veut tout risquer pour un style de vie inconnu, avec son nouvel amour. "To Each Her Own" nous fait vivre une gamme d'émotions avec une femme qui s'est perdue et cherche à se retrouver. Égarée dans sa sexualité, ce film démontre comment l'homophobie peut être difficile et agonisant.

TO EACH HER OWN FILMS

I knew I wanted to be a filmmaker since I was 12 years old & I spent all my paper route money on a VHS camcorder. When I discovered my sexual orientation it became clear to me what I was going to make films about. LGBTQ movies have the power to create change and make a real difference in homophobia both external and internal. I strongly believe that through filmmaking you can build awareness and understanding. I have been creating queer feature films since 2004. Besides the need for more LGBTQ lead characters in cinema, I am also of the belief that there is a real lack of female perspective in mainstream media. I am proud to be a female director, editor, writer and producer. To Each Her Own Films is an independent film company & would really appreciate any help spreading the word about it's existence.

FILMS: "I Do? (a documentary profiling same-sex marriage as it becomes legalized in Canada)" 2006, "To Each Her Own" 2009 & "Route of Acceptance" 2012. Proudly creating much needed LGBTQ media since 2004.

FILMMAKER - HEATHER TOBW

Heather is a Canadian Independent Filmmaker. She graduated from the three year Broadcasting Program as a Film Major at Niagara College Canada with honours. During her time there, she was awarded the “Bob Johnson Award” for best all around student in academics and practical work, an award for best cinematography in a short film and an award for her final thesis paper on the importance of the female vision in the film industry. She was a finalist for the 2003 National Apprenticeship Training Program with the Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television. Heather won the Barrie “Emerging Artist of the Year” Award in 2008.

In 2004 Heather started up her own independent film company, “To Each Her Own Films”. She has completed a broadcast commercial (starring the Olympic figure skater, Steven Cousins); a short film entitled “Envoy”, a feature length documentary on same-sex marriage entitled “I Do?”. “I Do?” (a documentary profiling same-sex marriage as it becomes legalized in Canada)-2005 had its world premiere at the New York International Independent Film and Video Festival, where it received an award for Best Gay Film. Heather’s next project, a feature length drama entitled, “To Each Her Own” (titled after her film company)-2008; is a heart felt lesbian coming out story. “To Each Her Own” played at over 60 festivals around the world winning awards such as Best Lesbian Drama at the Long Island NY’s Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, Best First Feature at Toronto’s Inside Out Gay and Lesbian Festival, an audience 1st Runner Up award for Best Film at the South Texas Underground Film Festival, Bronze Plaque at the 56th Christopher Columbus Award Ohio & 1st Runner Up for Best Feature at the Great Lakes International Independent Film Festival.

Heather was a camera operator for Out TV’s hit show “Chris & John to the Rescue (In Provincetown & Summer Camp)” -2007-2008. Heather completed a promotional video for the biggest sports and memorabilia card show in Canada at the International Centre-2010. This 10 minute video featured Hockey players: Paul Coffey, Bobby Clarke, Grant Fuhr, Ray Bourque, Pavel Bure & Matt Sundin. Heather has also filmed & edited numerous wedding, corporate and music videos. Heather’s most recent work is “Route of Acceptance”-2012. She wrote, edited and directed this lesbian dramatic concept film which plays with the idea of destiny. “Route of Acceptance” is currently touring the world festival circuit. So far it has played at over 20 International Film Festivals and won the award for Best Director at the Out Film Festival in Connecticut.

LEAD ACTOR - HANNAH HOGAN - JESS

Hannah Hogan is an actress and comedian. Hannah grew up in Peterborough, Ontario, Canada. She attended PCVS high school, and was accepted into their Integrated Arts Program. After high school, Hannah lived in Ireland for two years, where decided she wanted to be become a journalist. Then, she realized her grammar was poor, so acting seemed like the better choice. She went to Humber College in Toronto for two years, received a scholarship after her first year, and graduated with a Dean's Letter, (that means all her grades were in the 90's). After studying improv, sketch and stand up, Hannah has dipped her toes in almost all areas of performance. She starred on the hit YTV Show, That's So Weird, worked for the Second City Toronto, and has performed at Yuk Yuk's all over Ontario. Hannah's other acting credits include: TV series "The Carswell Show", TV movie "Goosh Bangs", Short Film "Nothing Shocks Anyone Anymore", Short Film "These Were the Feet of Ashley", Short Film "Howard", Feature Film "To Each Her Own", Short Film "Three Mothers" & The Series "Warehouse 13". Most recent projects for Hannah include: A commercial for The Source, a commercial for Bell & a Commercial for Tim Horton's. 2 new web series "The Roommate Experiment" & a To Each Her Own Film's web series "True Indie". A Pilot TV show for Frantic Films & MTP Productions.
